

Which Side Are They On?

by Ken Casper

The Southern Poverty Law Center defines a hate group as “an organization that – based on its official statements or principles, the statements of its leaders, or its activities – has beliefs or practices that attack or malign an entire class of people, typically for their immutable characteristics.”

This definition has one major flaw: the lack of any reference to truth. As we will see, the SPLC is not interested in truth but in political correctness. Politically correct (PC) speech is the enemy of truth. It is a lie. It is the art of deception, misdirection, a lethal weapon used to intimidate, to cripple opposition and ultimately to control.

As for immutable characteristics, they used to be race and gender. Now even those are fluid, depending on how the person feels at any given moment. Being Muslim is not an immutable characteristic. Attacking or maligning it may not be PC, but it does not constitute a hate crime.

What are some of the organizations the SPLC has labeled hate groups?

- Christian Reporter News
- G416 Patriots
- Understanding the Threat
- ACT for America
- Jihad Watch
- Jewish Defense League
- American Freedom Law Center
- The Clarion Project
- Florida Family Association

This sampling identifies only SPLC’s so-called “Anti-Muslim” organizations. Many others, listed under a variety of categories, truly deserve to be designated as hate groups, e.g., the Ku Klux Klan and the Nation of Islam. There are also notable omissions, like the African-American Defense League, Antifa, and Black Lives Matter which have fallen under Islamist influence.

In compiling their Anti-Muslim Hate Roundup of June 6th, the SPLC included the following entry:

[O]n May 17, Christian Reporter News, an online far-right news and commentary website largely targeting local conservative Christian audiences in the San Angelo, Texas, area, hosted Elisabeth Sabaditsch-Wolff, a prominent figure in Austria and Europe’s anti-Muslim movement who works closely with one of ACT for America’s European chapters. In 2011 Sabaditsch-Wolff was found guilty in Austria of hate speech — a conviction that was upheld in 2013.

No other information was offered. I must point out that everything in this quote is true—as far as it goes. The issue is that it doesn't go far enough.

- Why is the Christian Reporter News on the hate-watch list?
- What makes the Christian Reporter News a far-right organization?
- Why is the loaded word “targeting” used, instead a neutral term like “serving”?
- Why isn't it mentioned that Sabaditsch-Wolff's defense at trial was that everything she said was true, that the court conceded it was, that her crime was not spreading falsehoods but expressing undesirable truths—from a Muslim standpoint. (Why isn't the SPLC outraged by this?)
- Why isn't Sabaditsch-Wolff's pending appeal to the International Court at the Hague mentioned?

Most of all:

- Why isn't the Council on American Islamic Relations (CAIR) on the above hate list?
- And why has the SPLC allied itself with CAIR as a “Muslim Advocate”?

The Muslim Brotherhood created CAIR as part of Hamas, a designated terrorist organization, in the U.S. in 1994. Its objective is the same as ISIS and Al Qaeda, the imposition of Islamic rule/Sharia law worldwide through jihad.

CAIR was named as an un-indicted co-conspirator in the Holy Land Foundation trial of 2008, the largest successfully tried terrorist-support trial ever successfully prosecuted in American history. CAIR not only holds views and goals that are hostile to our way of life, it sponsors terrorism against us. This is not idle speculation but proven, documented fact. CAIR's mission is called “Civilization Jihad” and is clearly defined in their own documents, which were used in their 2008 trial:

The Ikhwan [members of the Muslim Brotherhood] must understand that their work in America is a kind of grand jihad in eliminating and destroying the Western civilization from within, and “sabotaging” its miserable house by the hands of the believers, so that it is eliminated, and Allah's religion is made victorious over all other religions. (Muslim Mafia, P. David Gaubatz, p. 230)

What the SPLC is trying to do as an “Advocate” for Muslims is to silence the opposition. PC speech is the first step toward a gag order. Limit what people can talk about and the vocabulary they can use, and you've restricted communication and reduced the opposition's ability to focus on the real target.

It is interesting that one of the organizations the SPLC condemns as anti-Muslim is the Clarion Project. This organization published the Muslim Brotherhood's plan to carry on “civilization jihad,” the orchestrated campaign to subvert and overthrow America's political and social institutions from within.

This raises another crucial question: why would any American who values the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights take up the Islamic cause, whose goal, by its own admission, is to overthrow our republic and establish a caliphate?

Is it even remotely possible the leadership of the SPLC doesn't realize the prime mission of many of their so-called anti-Muslim hate-groups is education? That their goal is to make their fellow citizens aware of the dangers around them and the enemy within?

“There is nothing good for non-Muslims in the Sharia. This is why every believer has a reason to know Sharia law, especially those in politics, regulation and legal matters. Sharia law is about the unbeliever as well as the Muslims. Islam's attitudes and actions about unbelievers are political, not religious.

“Even though Sharia violates every principle of our Constitution, it is being implemented today, because Americans are unaware about Sharia and its meaning.” (Sharia Law for Non-Muslims, Bill Warner, CSPI, p. 9)

Here are a few examples of Sharia being completely irreconcilable with our Constitution?

- Our Constitution stands for equality before the law. Sharia regards a woman's testimony as worth only half that of a man's.
- Our Constitution prohibits cruel and unusual punishment. Islamic law mandates a woman who has been raped must be stoned to death for having had sexual intercourse with a man not her husband. They place her in a pit, bury her up to her shoulders, then throw rocks at her head until she is dead. Mohammed himself specified the stones not be so small they do no serious damage, and not so big they kill her quickly. The intent is pain and suffering.
- Our constitution requires “due process” for anyone accused of a crime. Under Sharia Law a man can beat his wife for any reason or for no reason at all. A man has the unconditional right, even duty, to kill his children if they don't obey him. “Honor killing” is practiced not just in faraway places. We have seen Muslim fathers in this country kill their daughters because they associated with Christian boys.

In its education role, the Christian Reporter News has brought in former Muslims, government employees, Christian apologists, even a former Sharia lawyer to inform members of our community about political Islam. In doing so they have put their own lives in danger because Islamists don't want the truth to get out. They know Americans will reject Sharia law once they understand its content and realize it is completely incompatible with our Constitution and Bill of Rights. For that the SPLC has marked the Christian Reporter News a hate group. How sad.

How telling too that in a recent controversy the SPLC accepted the role of “Muslim Advocate” for CAIR and other Muslim interests over American law enforcement. John Guandolo, a former FBI agent and subject matter expert, gave a day-long workshop in San Angelo to local law enforcement officers regarding Islam's penetration into our government agencies and social institutions. Attacking the bona fides of the speaker and charging that the training was full of lies (without presenting any evidence to prove it), the SPLC led the charge to rescind already approved continuing education credits to the law enforcement attendees. Note: Guandolo has a standing offer of $1,000 in cash for anyone who can prove even one of his statements about Islam to be wrong. Nobody has ever been able to collect, including Sharia law experts. Nevertheless, the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement caved to the outside pressure. The credits were denied, proving the very lesson Guandolo was making, that Islam and its stooges have penetrated every level of government, including local law enforcement.

Training credits have been rescinded, but what those in attendance learned cannot be. Nor will their continuing education cease. The bell cannot be unrung.

But who and what is the SPLC? Have its many lawyers and legal research scholars become mouthpieces for the Muslim Brotherhood because they receive generous financial contributions from Hamas-sponsored CAIR? Or are they aiding and abetting the terrorist organization because they share its desire to destroy this American republic? If the latter is the case, they are guilty of treason.

On their website they say: “The SPLC is dedicated to fighting hate [sic] and bigotry and to seeking justice for the most vulnerable members of our society. Using litigation, education, and other forms of advocacy, the SPLC works toward the day when the ideals of equal justice and equal opportunity will be a reality.” Seemingly noble thoughts and aspirations. Notice their first line of approach is litigation. That’s a PC word for intimidation, and it fits right in with the Muslim Brotherhood’s campaign of “civilization jihad.” In essence what they are saying is: “Do what we want, or we’ll sue you into bankruptcy.” Too often it works. After the caliphate is established it will be: “Do what we say, or we will kill you.” Is the SPLC so blind to history that they don’t know “useful idiots” won’t be part of the “we” unless they convert to Islam?

Our country has never been in such serious danger as it is today, not in the Civil War, not during World War II, the Cold War, the Gulf Wars or in our confrontations with North Korea and Iran. We are witnessing from afar the collapse of old Europe. Austria has lost its freedom of speech—even to say the truth. Germany is as bad. Sweden is gone. So is Belgium. All have collapsed to the PC juggernaut, by the civilization jihadis’ skillful use of western freedoms to enslave more millions of peace-loving people than Hitler even dreamed of. Sophisticated Europeans have forgotten peace is the end, not the means.

England, the ancestral home of our Founding Fathers, where Locke, Hobbes and Blackstone delved into the unalienable rights endowed by our Creator and taught us that all men are created equal . . . England is on the brink of a total civil-rights collapse. Can we be far behind?

And so the question remains: why would an organization that prides itself on being opposed to hate crimes ally itself with an international enterprise that seeks to throw away the Constitution with all its safeguards and protections of liberty in favor of a totalitarian culture that chops off people’s hands for theft, performs female genital mutilation on their wives and daughters, organizes rape gangs to intimidate communities, crucifies children in front of their parents because they refuse to acknowledge Allah as the one, true god? Could there be a more hateful group? Apparently the SPLC doesn’t see it that way. Instead they persecute those who would expose Islam’s agenda. I wonder how many pieces of silver that betrayal earns them.

As Americans we have the God-blessed privilege of enjoying unprecedented freedoms and liberty and passing them on to our children—but only if we fight for them. Never before have Americans had to face an enemy within as it does today. I know where I stand.

It is time for the SPLC to decide if it is a champion of truth, justice and the American Way, or just an opportunist, hungry for money and the power to destroy. They started out as patriots. What happened?
