

America is Changing . . . Texas is Changing . . . San Angelo is Changing... And Here's Why!

Part 3 of a 4-part Series:

In my first two articles, I alerted you to the campaign called “civilization jihad” being conducted against us by international Islam under the leadership of the Muslim Brotherhood. Next, I furnished specific examples of how they had already infiltrated parts of our country and its institutions. That raised the question what we are doing about it.

The short answer is, “Not enough.” But before we go into detail on that score, I want to show what will happen if we fail to meet this challenge. Keep in mind Islam has 1,400 years of experience in not just conquering other societies but in obliterating their histories and cultures.

We see the consequences today of inaction by western powers in sub-Saharan Africa and southwest Asia, where Islamic marauders invade girls’ schools, kidnap them by the hundreds, many of whom are prepubescent, to be sold as sex slaves; where Muslim fundamentalists capture and kill peaceful Yazidis and other Christian groups because they are not Sunnis; where young children are tortured to death in front of their parents, because Allah has commanded them to do so, and Mohammed showed them the way.

Look what is happening in Europe. Sweden has fallen. Twenty-five years ago, rape was rare in that country. Today it is a daily occurrence. Women can no longer go out alone at night because to do so is “asking for it.” Could anyone have predicted a movement there to replace the cross on the Swedish flag with the crescent moon of Islam? Whoever could have imagined other economically advanced and politically sophisticated western European countries succumbing like feckless children to the onslaught of Muslim refugees? Yet they have—at least until now.

In Europe the fight against Islam may ultimately come to armed conflict as it did at the gates of Vienna on Sept 11, 1683, but it seems unlikely. The governments of Europe today have shown themselves unwilling to fight, even for their own survival. Those smug socialist countries will take political correctness to the grave with them—along with the cultural heritage of 2,500 years.

The primary lesson we are learning from all this is that civilization is a delicate thing. The truth is inescapable: there are people in the world who want to kill us. Islam can be stopped. But what will happen if it conquers America?

Nothing good.

The U.S. Constitution, one of the greatest documents written by man, will be abandoned and replaced by a 7th century Islamic theocracy. Sharia will become the supreme law of the land. Good-bye due process. Farewell Bill of Rights. Speaking of rights, women will have none. They will be uneducated, forced to undergo genital mutilation, wear the burqa in public. A woman will have to endure her husband's beatings whenever he feels like "disciplining" her—with or without cause. She won't have to worry about him raping her, however. Under Sharia a man cannot rape his wife because he has the absolute right to the use of her body. If hurting her adds to his pleasure, she is obliged to endure it. If another man should rape her, however, she will be stoned to death for having intercourse with a man who is not her husband.

There won't be any protection from cruel and unusual punishment, because under Sharia no punishment is considered cruel or unusual. Thieves have a hand chopped off for the first offense, a foot amputated for the second. Homosexuals can be stoned, crucified, hurled from the roof of a tall building or put in cages and burned to death. The same fate can be meted out to apostates, those who leave the Islamic faith or appear to. Children can be beaten or scourged if they ask for food during the day in the "holy" month of Ramadan.

If we don't wake up, if we don't fight back, if we fall, the country we know as the United States will culturally resemble Saudi Arabia, where you do as you're told—or suffer the consequences. See the paragraph above.

Today Saudi Arabia enjoys a high standard of living because of oil money. Before the discovery and exploitation of the black gold by Americans in the 20th century, however, the country hadn't changed much since Mohammed drove camel caravans across the desert. Take away the oil revenue and within a generation Saudi Arabia will be back to camels and sand dunes. They produce nothing. Should the rest of Europe and America fall to the jihadis, our economy will collapse, our exports will likewise drop dramatically, and our standard of living could easily plummet to early 19th century standards.

Consider these facts:

Economically: The entire world will change. The prosperity that comes with America's ever-growing economy will disappear. Here is just a small sample of the changes we can expect.

- The pork industry will be shut down. That means more than no ham or bacon with your eggs. It is a trillion-dollar industry that employs tens of thousands of people. In addition to food, pigs provide products like leather, lubricants, medical ingredients and a myriad of other goods we probably aren't even aware of.
- Also disappearing from the marketplace will be beer, wine and hard liquor.
- Cosmetics and women's fashions will see a sharp decline.
- The entertainment industry will narrow to almost nothing. Classic and classical music will virtually disappear because of its religious underpinnings on the one hand and its "secular obscenity" on the other.
- If you are a dog-lover, kiss your pooch goodbye. Mohammed must have been bitten by a dog at some time, because he hated them. You won't be allowed to keep yours.

Socially: Things will change dramatically.

- Marriages will be arranged by fathers and older brothers, very often to child brides. Don't forget, Mohammed, the perfect man, married Aisha, when she was 6-year-old and consummated the marriage when she was 9!
- Polygamy will be in. A Muslim man can have four wives and any number of sex slaves.
- Speaking of slavery, the 600,000 men who gave their lives in our civil war to end the "peculiar institution" will have died for naught, if Islam triumphs. Slavery is not just condoned in Islam, it is offered as a reward for engaging in the struggle, jihad, against the unbelievers.
- Christians may be allowed to avoid death or slavery by paying the jizya, a special tax levied on "people of the book" (Christians, Jews and Zoroastrians) in exchange for dhimmi status [second class humiliation] in the caliphate.

All this brings us back to the original question, "What can we do about encroaching Islam?" Here are just a few thoughts:

At the federal level—

- Name the enemy: The federal government must clearly and decisively admit we are under attack by one specific group of people. They're not Irish Catholics, Orthodox Serbians, German Lutherans or French atheists. They're Muslims from a variety of countries. The PC crowd would say not all Muslims are violent or terrorists. That may be true, but how do we tell the difference between a peaceful Muslim and his violent co-religionist when in their most sacred book, the Koran, Allah orders them to "Slay the unbeliever wherever you find him"?

Did you notice for 8 years the federal government never blamed Islam for a single terrorist attack? The words Islamic extremist, radical Islam and Muslim terrorist were banned from the lips of administration officials. Instead, we had lone wolves, workplace violence and other stupid euphemisms. Were you fooled by them? I doubt anybody else was either. But even now, with a new sheriff in town, the establishment has been quick to deny the Las Vegas "incident" was in any way associated with Islamic terrorism. Make no mistake, it was. A little research by the lame and lazy media would have brought out the fact that settling debts before engaging in violent jihad is necessary to enter paradise.

- Educate law enforcement: Return the training materials to courses for law enforcement that were purged by the Obama administration. That means cutting the PC crap. We have truth in lending for the banking industry. We need truth in defending in the Department of Justice and every other department and agency of the federal government.
- Employ positive defenses: Profile middle-easterners and Muslims coming into the country. The Israelis have been very good at this. They do it quickly and efficiently. We can learn a good deal from them. They've offered the training. Let's take advantage of it. It will also strengthen our ties with the only real democracy and our staunchest ally in the Middle East.

- Mosques: Recognize mosques are not simply houses of worship but military headquarters and armories. We used to monitor them before the Obama administration took over. Return to monitoring them.

-- Expel all advisors/consultants on Islam who are or have been members or associated with organizations on the list of unindicted co-conspirators in the trial of the Holy Land Foundation.

- Examine the tax exempt status, if any, of organizations on the unindicted co-conspirator list.
- Provide training to local law enforcement.
- Take legal actions: multiple violations of the Constitution and federal law by Muslim organizations were well documented in the 2008 Holy Land Foundation trial. It is time to follow up on those findings.

-- Separate in law religious Islam from political Islam. The Reliance of the Traveler would be a good discriminator.

-- Clean house. No one has a right to a government job, anyone not in sync with the new policy should be terminated.

-- Pursue legal action against the unindicted co-conspirators in the Holy Land Foundation trial. That includes CAIR, ISNA

-- Pass American Law for American Courts

-- Impeach judges who use Sharia law in court

At the local level:

- When Muslims request special consideration, e.g., zoning, foot baths, time out for prayers in schools, etc., ask, "Would we do the same for a Catholic, a Mormon or a Baptist?" If the answer is yes, grant it to all of them. If the answer is no, deny it. The Supreme Court took the Bible out of the classroom. The Koran has no place there either.
- If a mosque is being built and is being granted tax exempt status as a house of worship, question building specification that don't fall in line with a church or synagogue.

On the individual level:

There is much each of us can do to protect ourselves, our families and our communities. It starts with getting educated about the nature of the enemy. That's where we'll start next time.
