

Black Lives Matter...

...victims or pawns...

by Kat Rowoldt

This past week we have been held captive on the news channels as they have covered the Tulsa and Charlotte shootings wall-to-wall for hours. It appears that an innocent black man may have been killed in Tulsa, as they filed first-degree manslaughter charges against the white female officer who shot him. But in Charlotte, where the riots broke out, property was destroyed and looted, and a fellow protestor was killed potentially by another protestor, no charges are being filed against any of the officers involved in the death of this black man. So why Charlotte versus Tulsa for the riot?

Black Lives Matter (BLM) hit the streets in Charlotte, North Carolina, but are they victims or pawns? At first the locals came out to protest, but then BLM joined their ranks. It has been reported that at least 70% of the protestors that have been agitating the crowds are "professional demonstrators" from outside of that community in similar fashion to what we witnessed in Ferguson, Missouri back in 2014.

What's happening today is on the heels of numerous police assassinations across the nation. There is a growing anger and strife against law enforcement officers from the black community. Why on earth is this happening? What or who is stirring the pot?

Black Lives Matter began in 2014, in Ferguson, Missouri, when Officer Darren Wilson, a white man, shot Michael Brown, an eighteen year-old black male in self-defense. After a lengthy and extensive investigation, it was determined that some of the initial reports by bystanders who claimed that Brown had his hands up when the officer shot him, were not true. The chant was birthed, "Hands Up, Don't Shoot!" Even after the facts were disclosed, this chant lived on and began the movement against police officers.

While we were focused on the destruction that was going on in Ferguson, worried over the unrest that was coming to life, we failed to see what was happening behind the scenes. Laying in wait was an organization looking for an opportunity to blend into and agitate "a crowd with a cause." The shooting in self-defense by a white officer against a black man was exactly what they were looking for to meet their needs.

Who is this organization and what is this all about? Well, we will have to roll the clock back just a bit and lay a little ground work to understand what is going on today. Let's add to this another hot topic - refugees and the growing Islamic communities in our country. It seems like we are being hit by a thousand crises coming at us from all directions. But maybe, just maybe, there is a common thread amongst this inundation. Maybe that's even why it's happening.

Over the last eighteen months, I've had the unique opportunity to get a fast track education in terrorism, Islam, refugees, and other hot topics from people I have interviewed and come to know who work and/or live on the frontlines of these very topics. They are experts in these fields, and their wealth of knowledge and firsthand experiences are not the things that the media is sharing with us.

Elisabeth Sabaditsch-Wolff from Austria talks about the impact of refugees overtaking her country and the destruction that is occurring throughout Europe, along with truth becoming known as hate speech. Gen. Michael Flynn reports that it is known that we have ISIS operating in all fifty states today in America. Kamal Saleem, a former PLO terrorist from Lebanon, taught me about the plans and purpose of civilization jihad and who the players are today in our country. John Guandolo, former FBI counter-terrorist specialist, shared his wealth of knowledge of how our government has been infiltrated by jihadists, positioning themselves for their future plans. The list goes on and on. My interviews with these exceptional people are archived under Terrorism in the ChristianReporterNews.com for your edification.

In 2001, the Holy Land Foundation, the largest Islamic charity in the United States, was designated as a terrorist organization. In 2004, the government seized their assets and closed their doors. During the investigation for the Holy Land Foundation trial that would eventually conclude in 2008, a manifesto was discovered that outlined their plans to take over our country and make it a Sharia compliant Muslim country. Islamists, like those in the HLF, began their operations in the United States back in the 1960's and have continued in a step-by-step well thought out plan that will take decades to accomplish. [The Holy Land Foundation leaders were convicted and imprisoned for funding Hamas, a Muslim terrorist organization.]

That seems rather foreign to us, as we, Americans, prefer instant gratification and completion. But the Islamic mindset is generational, small advances at a time, each step methodically put into place to build upon for the next step. Today they are still exactly on track with the plans they set into motion sixty years ago. So if we have their manifesto in hand, and we can read English and Arabic, why are they still able to continue their destructive plans?

Good question! First we have to understand that Islam is not a religion. It is a political ideology disguised as a religion. Our religious freedom laws are being used against us in fighting Islam since it is being classified as a faith. Scholars of Islam agree that only sixteen percent of the Quran can be considered religious. Having interviewed and coming to know two former Muslims, Kamal Saleem that I mentioned previously, and Daniel Akbari, a former Sharia lawyer from Iran and author of the book, Honor Killings, both agree with this assessment. We must remove Islam from the religious category and call it what it is: a political ideology.

We only have to look at Europe to see the Islamic plan in action. They are a few years ahead of us, but if we don't stop their plan now, we will lose our country. Sharia law cannot coexist with our Constitution. It's so hard to believe that a western civilization like the United States could end up with Sharia law and women adorned in burkas. You only have to look at Iran's history to realize this can really happen. The Iranian Revolution in 1979 changed their whole world. It was hard for me to conceive that women would give up their stylish clothes for burkas. Dr. Mark Pfeiffer, The Christian Institute of Islamic Studies, and Daniel Akbari, shared the type of violence that occurred and how women are mutilated into submission. This is a reality I pray we never experience here.

As we have been witnessing in Europe, Muslim refugees are growing larger and larger in numbers. When they are few in number, their mode of operation is to conform and blend into the society like good neighbors and friends. When their numbers reach a higher percentage, they begin to become defensive and demand things be changed to fit their "religious" needs. We are experiencing that now in the U.S. When the scale tips in their favor, they will begin to take over politically and force their Sharia law on everyone.

It was such an eye-opening experience to interview Zaid Subhi, a Chaldean Christian who lived in Iraq when we dropped bombs on it back in the 90's, then fled for his life in 2003 when the Sunnis took over Baghdad and began forcing the Christians to convert, pay the Jizya tax, or die by the sword. We have no idea what the rest of the world has been dealing with while we have been soccer moms, playing with multi-media toys, and focused on Facebook.

While we have been asleep at the wheel, Muslims have been coming to our country as students on VISAs and not returning, through legal immigration, and as refugees. They have purposefully worked their way into key occupations and positions. You will find them teaching in schools and universities, holding city, state and national government positions, managing our water systems and utilities, in our military, etc. President Obama and Hillary Clinton are surrounded by "moderate Muslims" who follow the Muslim Brotherhood's (a terrorist organization) mission in the West to promote sedition in furtherance of Sharia's supremacist agenda - and you wonder why they make the decisions that are to their advantage and not ours. For forty years they have been working to get themselves well placed. This is not by accident, but by design. Remember - we have the manifesto that outlines this plan.

Today we see them demanding prayer rooms at schools, changes in the military uniform to accommodate their dress and facial hair codes, operating Sharia Courts in Texas and other states, and becoming forceful, demanding their "rights" as a religion. We are actually experiencing Christians and Jews who have bought into the Interfaith Movement of deception working against their own Biblical or Torah beliefs. This is all right on track with their plans - and we continue to be oblivious to the truth. Yes - the truth.

The Muslim Brotherhood openly discusses their plans. They even announce their moves in advance and what they are preparing to do. [Sounds like our President telling our enemies what our military is going to do.] In December 2015, documented in a video clip that you can actually listen to on our website, you will hear Nihad Awad, President of the Council of American Islamic Relations (CAIR) ["does business as" HAMAS in the U.S. as determined by Federal authorities] announce at the December 2015 Islamic Society of North America (ISNA) National Conference state we are the new "black lives matter."

Awad is letting the Muslims know working alongside the Black Lives Matter movement will contribute to the Islamist's goal of the eventual downfall of America. Just as Democrats have used blacks in this country to promote their agenda while abandoning the strengthening of the black community, CAIR, ISNA and other Islamic apologists are using blacks to further their goals of gaining power and, as history as shown, will treat black non-believers with the same sword as they do with white non-believers."

They are the real agitators in BLM. They seek destruction. They want the police to become powerless. Awad goes on to tell his audience they must turn their mosques into voter registration centers. Think about that! To foil their plans, we must make sure Christians are registered and actually vote to stop the open doors of Islamic refugees and bring order back into our society.

So why Charlotte and not Tulsa? Charlotte is a community with a large black population, therefore it's easier to pull the BLM issue into the mix and get before the cameras. Free press and media coverage builds their cause. They are selling BAD COPS, white people are racist, blacks have been dealt a bad hand by the American way of life and they must fight to force things to change. They are peddling fear too. Who can forget the young black woman who truly believed a cop could shoot her in school, in her car or at work screaming at the top of her voice at the FOX reporter.

There is no question that some things do need to change to assist the black community that has been stuck in the welfare system for generations. Agitating that community to riot, looting their own neighborhood stores and hurting their fellow blacks, is not the answer. Understanding that Islamic jihadists are supporting the violence and contribute morally and physically to it needs to be exposed. Muslims are joining the protests. The black community that is voicing its pain, does not deserve to be used as a pawn for radical Islam. They need to understand they are being victimized once again - but in a very different way.

We need to pray. We need to educate ourselves about what is really happening that we are not seeing reported in traditional media. We need to share with our friends and family so no one is deceived any longer. We need to strip Islam of its religious standing and deal with it as the political ideology that it is. We need to understand Islamists want to destroy our country and kill all the infidels. You are an infidel! That means you. They want the world to operate under Sharia Law - which is their government.

Sharia Law is a brutal system of oppression. Its enforcers do chop off hands and heads. They stone women. Women are chattel - which means property. Their rights are only 50% of that of a man. Women cannot leave the house without a male family member going with them. They cannot drive a car. Typically they are not allowed to go school. No makeup. Burkas! Men can rape women without cause because it is the woman's fault for the rape. Muslim men have four wives. They rotate out a wife when they please and send her back to her family so they can bring in a fresh young wife.

This litany could go on and on. One of the things we don't hear discussed is the fact that they destroy all art, all statues. There is no music. In other words, cultural refinement is destroyed. We have witnessed on the news historical sites being destroyed by Muslims. Animals are brutally murdered. It is everything that Christianity is not.

Lord, open our eyes to see what is happening around us, give us the wisdom to understand and take action, and the strength to turn things around for Your glory. May these Islamic jihadist experience Your love and come to know You as their Lord and Savior. In Jesus' Name I pray. Amen

Until next time....
